Gentlemen:

Please accept our sincere condolences over the recent loss of Mr. Phil Bowman. His presence and influence are well known – not just in Jackson County, but also across Ohio and the nation. His business acumen, devotion to his family and his indomitable will to make his home county, state, and nation a better place for all Americans will survive him as enduring marks of his success in life.

We know Phil Bowman loved his country and its veterans of armed service to this nation and in accordance with his wishes we ask that Jackson County Commissioners accept and direct our donation to honor Phil Bowman to the Jackson County Veterans Service Office. Phil Bowman understood and embodied the leadership principles that veterans come to know – “Duty, Honor and Country” – instilling these values in his business and most importantly within his family. He will be missed.

As business partners and veterans with service-connected disabilities, Ron and I deeply appreciate the assistance and support of the Veterans Administration and the powerful support Americans, like Phil Bowman, require of the political decision-makers on behalf of all veterans. We know – from our experiences – that County Veteran Service Offices are a crucial component of the support the nation provides its armed service veterans. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation in honoring another Jackson County resident who earned widespread respect and admiration by the strength of his character and leadership. He will be missed.

Respectfully,

Ron Mills

Phil Kabealo

Jackson County Fair board Member, Chris Walls states there has been a lot of vandalism in the past several months, and the fair board is interested in hiring a part-time caretaker. Mr. Walls said they had a caretaker in the past that lived on the grounds in his own trailer and kept the fairgrounds in prestigious shape. They are looking for someone who can mow, weed eat, paint, etc., and be there through the day that can monitor the fairgrounds. Mr. Walls stated that the previous caretaker, Mr. Huntley, still helps out from time to time. Mr. Ryan Pelliter, who was to be at the meeting this morning, had the breakdown of what it would cost to hire a part time caretaker. Commissioner Haller stated they would need that information. Commissioner Willis thought they should pursue the same arrangement they had with their previous caretaker. Commissioner Hensler thanked Mr. Walls, and said they would take it under advisement and consider during the budget.
