Roll Call: Haller, Yes Willis, Yes Hensler, Yes

Back in session at 9:51 a.m., with no action taken.

Mr. Dave Stevens came in to voice his concerns regarding the new Amish Auction house at the intersection of Glade Rd and St. Rt. 32. that will be opening up in April. His concern is safety, and he feels that if they would put in a flashing light, and/or lane addition to help with the inevitable extra traffic, it could save lives. There are other businesses in the area, including three sawmills. Commissioner Hensler stated they may be able to get something on the Glade Road side, since it is a county road. They would contact Engineer Miller, who keeps in contact with the state, who would have to address any changes regarding St. Rt. 32.

Ms. Donna Smith addressed the commissioners regarding the cruelty to animals in the county, and what action she would like to see the commissioners take. She stated that in the past year, there have been several federal and state laws passed making animal cruelty a felony, but nothing done locally. She praised the dog pound and the humane society for the great job they all do, regarding dogs, but her primary concern were the cats. She feels that if someone else's cats get on your property, the owner should be fined. She stated; "Those who cannot watch any of God's creatures starve, animal or human, and have used their own meager resources to feed and care for what they are able to...need help." (Her letter is available at the Commissioner's office). She feels the local veterinarians need to work together as a team to offer low cost and even free spaying and neutering for the existing cat colonies. Laws are for the betterment of the community but are not worth the paper they are written on unless they are enforced. Commissioner Hensler stated the commission is governed by the Ohio Revised Code, but the municipalities have the right to create and enforce rules and fines within their own jurisdiction. Ms. Smith also stated that the fairgrounds no longer allows the Rascal Clinics, which offer spay and neuter services at a much lower cost. The Commissioners did feel they could find a location to hold the Rascal Clinics in the near future. Commissioner Willis states the Humane Society has a humane agent that has the power to remove abused or neglected farm animals and cats. Commissioner Haller felt it was a matter where several resources could pull together to find a solution.
