The discussion regarding both Square One and CAPS was tabled last week until more information could be obtained. Both of these facilities offer services to domestic violent victims. After speaking with Gallia County and being informed that Square One located in Gallipolis, Ohio received the marriage license fees from Gallia County, with none of their proceeds being given to CAPS located in Jackson, the commissioners passed the following resolution:

Resolution 188-23

Motion by Haller second by Hensler to approve giving 100% of Jackson County’s marriage license fees to CAPS (Community Assault Prevention Services).

Dr. Marla Haller and R.N. Nurse and Assistant Sandra DeHart were present to discuss the month of October being observed as National Cancer Awareness Month. Dr. Haller said her message to all women would be to get an annual mammography, as well as doing their own breast exams. Early detection is key. Breast cancer has touched many of our lives, and there are many new treatments available today. Men are at risk also and should do the self-exams also, as well as being tested.

Resolution 191-23

Motion by Haller second by Hensler to recognize the month of October as National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, with this year’s theme being “Living Beyond Breast Cancer”.
