Jackson-Vinton Farm Bureau (Pike & Scioto) Senior Organization Director Kim Harless, JVFB Vice President Jessica Taylor, and JVFB Trustees Sallie Sexton & Julie Tripp were all present to discuss what a crucial role American agriculture plays in strengthening our economy and in providing food for people around the world, which we sometimes take for granted. When you factor in all the jobs involved in processing, distributing and marketing food and fiber products, you see that American agriculture is our nation's largest employer. The Farm Bureau members were gracious again this year in providing each Commissioner a "Goody Basket" which included everything from local farmers/businesses.
