Account Executive Jason Brown with Ohio Deferred Compensation presented the Roth 457B Option that is now available to county employees. Employers who choose to offer the Roth 457 option must execute an Adoption Agreement for the Payroll/Administrative Procedures. In comparison with the traditional pre-tax option, the contributions are post-tax dollars, the investment growth accumulates tax-free and the federal tax on distributions is tax free if certain criteria are met.

Resolution #51-26

Motion by Hensler second by Haller to approve the Roth 457 Option Employer Agreement.

OSU Extension Educators Josh Winters and Maddie Allman were present to give their quarterly updates.

Both Josh and Maddie give very detailed reports, which covers teaching & the curriculum, monthly committee meetings and upcoming events, which includes Ohio 4-H conference, Open hike night at Canter's Cave. Maddie stated they would be hiring a summer student assistant to help with all that is planned this summer. Josh stated they would be introducing the Bee Trails at Canter's Cave this year and he and the commissioners discussed the Master Gardener program that everyone is very excited about. It takes roughly 50 hours to complete, but you have a full year to do so. Commissioner Willis ask for advice on how to protect cherry trees from Japanese beetles. Josh stated he would research the topic and send Commissioner Willis the information.
