PUBLIC NOTICE

JISCO Property AMLER Planning Project Public Forum & Opportunity for Public Comment

Jackson County is preparing an application for Abandoned Mine Lands Economic Revitalization (AMLER) Program funding to support planning for the future recreational, conservation, and economic revitalization of approximately 57 acres of County-owned property associated with the former Jackson Iron & Steel Company (JISCO) site.

The proposed AMLER project is for planning purposes only. The application will support the development of plans and recommendations for potential future uses of the property, including recreational opportunities, conservation, forest management, historic and cultural resources, and other compatible uses. No construction is proposed as part of this application.

PUBLIC FORUM

Tuesday, September 22, 2026

10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

Jackson County Commissioners' Office

200 E. Main St.

Jackson, OH 45640

The public is invited to attend and provide ideas, comments, questions, and concerns regarding the proposed planning project and potential future uses of the JISCO property.

SUBMIT COMMENTS ELECTRONICALLY

Those unable to attend the public forum may submit written comments, ideas, questions, or concerns electronically to: projects@jacksoncounty.us
